* The different divisions of the population, with respect to age and sex, are so given in the above statement, that it is not possible to bring them into agreement with the number which purports to be the aggregate of the population of the province.

A Committee of the House of Assembly of Lower Canada, to whom it was referred to examine the accuracy of the returns under the Act of 1825, reported to the House that "the state of the population, as set forth by the returns, was much below its true amount;" a fact which the Committee refers to the wilful misrepresentations of parties who understated the numbers of which their families consisted, and who appear to have been actuated in this matter by their doubts as to the views of the Legislature in instituting the census.

PUBLIC INSTRUCTION.

THE number of free schools established in the different parishes throughout the province of Lower Canada, according to Returns made in 1832, was 78. The number of children instructed therein was 3,578, and the expense of the whole to the Provincial Government is stated to have been 2,105*l.* 14*s.* 4*d.* colonial currency.

The mode of instruction followed in each school is left greatly to the choice or discretion of the teacher, not any particular system being enjoined by the Board of the Royal Institution.

Every teacher to whom the management of a school is intrusted, is bound to receive one-third of the number of his scholars free of charge, and to instruct them in reading, writing, and arithmetic. No master of any of these schools is, in any case, allowed to charge more to a scholar than 3*s.* 4*d.* per month; and a power is given to the visitors to vary the rate to be charged, according to the number of children in each family who attend the school, or according to the circumstances of the parents.

The 78 schools above mentioned are under the management of the Royal Institution, a Board incorporated for the advancement of learning by the Provincial Act, 41 Geo. III. c. 17, of which institution the Lord Bishop is the principal. To this Board the Legislature makes an annual grant.

In addition to the schools included in the Return, two grammar-schools, one at Quebec and another at Montreal, are supported by an annual allowance of 200*l.* a-year each, from the revenues of the estates of the late order of Jesuits; and a further allowance of 90*l.* and 50*l.*, respectively, in lieu of school-houses: these schools are also under the superintendence of the Royal Institution. The system of instruction followed in them is that of the public grammar-schools in England. Twenty free scholars are admitted into each of them, and the rate of tuition for other scholars is 12*l.* per annum.

There are also upwards of 1,000 schools established throughout the province under the Provincial Act, 9 Geo. IV., attended, as it would appear by the Returns, by 45,558 scholars of both sexes: 20*l.* currency is granted by the Act to each teacher whose school may be attended by at least 20 scholars. The schools are under the direction of trustees, who are annually elected by the inhabitants of each township or parish in which the schools are situate. Schools established prior to the passing of the Act, are not required to be placed under trustees. The signature of the proprietor to the correctness of the Return, is sufficient to enable the teacher to draw the allowance. No particular system of instruction is followed, but the Lancasterian has been introduced into a few of them.

Several colleges in connexion with the Roman Catholic Church exist in different parts of the province, as well as a considerable number of private seminaries, in which the higher branches of education are taught.

Under the provision of the Act about 240 schools have been established, and their number is rapidly increasing. |

NOTE.—In addition to the schools thus established and endowed by the Legislature, there are a considerable number of respectable private schools, in which all branches of education are taught; but as their conductors receive no pecuniary encouragement from Government, they have never been called upon to make any returns of their respective establishments.

COURSE of EXCHANGE.

What is termed Halifax Currency, and which generally prevails in British North America, with the exception of Newfoundland.

Currency being an advance of 11½ per cent. on sterling, by adding one-ninth to sterling the sum is brought into currency, and from currency to sterling by subtracting one-tenth.

Halifax Currency is formed upon the basis of estimating the dollar at 4s. 6d., which thus becomes 5s. currency.

AMOUNT of COIN in CIRCULATION.

It is impossible to state with any degree of certainty the amount of coin in circulation. There is, however, reason to believe that the Spanish dollars, Bank of England tokens, and coin of various descriptions acknowledged at the Treasury, exceed in amount the sum of £7000.

* No accurate survey has ever been made of the Island, this number is a rough computation from the best existing map, and is probably wide of the truth.

† The only means of ascertaining the births, marriages, and deaths, is by the parish registers, but of course they do not embrace all the births and deaths.

Mercantile business is also sometimes transacted in a coin which has long disappeared from the island, the Johannes, of which there were two descriptions, the round Johannes and the cut Johannes, the former being equal to £4 currency, and the latter £3. 6s. currency.
The amount of coin in circulation is not known, nor is there any way of ascertaining it.

COURSE OF EXCHANGE.

£225 currency for £100 sterling has been the general rate of exchange throughout the year, in cases where payments have been made or received in the current Spanish or Portuguese coins in circulation in the colony ; but the British silver money is current at an exchange of £250 currency for £100 sterling. The exchange generally has fluctuated from £230 to £250 during the greater part of the year 1832.

AMOUNT of COIN in Circulation.

AMOUNT of PAPER CURRENCY in Circulation.

None.

Accounts kept in £. s. d. currency.

WEIGHTS and MEASURES.

The same as in Great Britain, previous to the introduction of the imperial measure.

Exclusive of a considerable quantity of Spanish dollars, always uncertain as to number, as they are constantly coming in and going out of the colony. The quantity in circulation depends on the rate of exchange in the islands.

COPPER.

Six tons of copper coined in stiver and half stiver pieces, costs £1,079 1s. 7d. sterling.

The greater part of the above is still in the colonial treasury, from the difficulty of getting it into circulation.

Total in Holland currency, guilders 2,199,758, or £157,126 8s. 6d. sterling.

The above paper currency has been issued at various times on the security of funded property, the present value of which, according to the last price quoted, is about £122,000; this, at the present high rate of exchange, say guilders 17, would produce guilders 2,074,000.

During the years 1830 and 1831, funded property was sold out to the amount of £33,500, principally for the purpose of paying for the new public buildings; and in the last combined court it was resolved, that the sum of £5,000 should be invested, annually, until a sufficient sum is restored, as a security for the paper money.

The paper is calculated at the exchange of guilders 14.

COURSE of EXCHANGE.

The rate of exchange in all government or public transactions, is fixed, by an order in council, at 4s. 4d. sterling, for the Spanish dollar of three guilders, which is equal to thirteen guilders and eleven-thirteenths of a guilder to the £ sterling. This exchange does not vary.

The rate of exchange in private and mercantile transactions fluctuates from 13 to 14 $\frac{1}{2}$  guilders, and upwards, per £ sterling, according to the demand for, or scarcity of, bills on Great Britain; it is now (31st December, 1832,) at 17 guilders to the £ sterling.

The exchange between this colony and Holland has, for several years, been stationary at 115 guilders, colonial money, for 100 guilders Dutch.

This colony has no rate of exchange in any other foreign country.

AMOUNT OF COIN IN CIRCULATION.

It is impossible to ascertain the quantity of perfect money in circulation. With the exception of doubloons, there may be said to be none, excepting what may be brought into circulation for the payment of the troops. It has been equally difficult to ascertain what quantity of cut money was originally put in circulation under the ordinance of 1813; it may be calculated, however, to have amounted to 50,000 dollars, of which a portion is supposed to have been taken away from the colony as bullion. As, however, it is of the cut money that the peculium of the slaves principally consists, there may be a much greater quantity of it hoarded than the Government have any idea of.

AMOUNT OF PAPER CURRENCY IN CIRCULATION.

None.

ACCOUNTS kept in £. s. d. CURRENCY, or Livres, Sols, and Deniers.

COURSE OF EXCHANGE.

The course of exchange varies according to the number of bills in the market. The leading causes of the high rate of exchange in latter years has been the low price of produce. The prevailing rate for the year 1832, for bills at 90 days, the usual mode of drawing bills, has been 235 per cent. The exchange with foreign countries may be said to depend upon the value in such countries of the doubloon or dollar, the only general circulating medium of these colonies.

FOREIGN COINS.

[illegible]

Nore.—25,000 Spanish Mexican Dollars were pierced, in virtue of a Proclamation of General Munro, dated 19th June, 1811, and were current by tale, until a Proclamation of Sir Ralph Woodford, dated 14th September, 1814, ordered them to pass as Silver Bullion.

AMOUNT of COIN in CIRCULATION.

Cannot be ascertained for the following reasons :—

1. The coin current in this colony being of the same description as that of all the other islands, its circulation cannot be restricted to this.
2. The Americans frequently took specie during their intercourse, in preference to the produce of the island.
3. The Commissary sometimes receives bills of exchange, to be sold for the payment of the troops, and at other times specie.
4. When the exchange is low in the neighbouring islands, the merchants, and others, send specie for the purchase of bills.

AMOUNT of PAPER CURRENCY in CIRCULATION.

None.

ACCOUNTS kept in £. s. d.

COURSE of EXCHANGE.

The exchange is regulated by the quantity of bills for sale, and the price fixed by the venders thereof. The exchange varied from £230 currency to £252 10s. currency for £100 sterling.

* The remark.—The number of deaths in New Providence, and the Keys adjacent, appear greater in proportion than any of the other islands: this arises from the great mortality that prevailed among the Africans lately captured and settled on Hyburn Key and Adelaide settlements, upwards of 150 having died, shortly after their being landed, of the scurvy, &c.

It is utterly impossible to state the quantity of oranges, limes, and lemons raised on the different islands, as American vessels coming for pine apples and salt generally take away more or less of them, and what comes to the Nassau market no account is taken, but on the whole is very considerable.

It is impossible to ascertain the quantity of land in cultivation and uncultivated, owing to the rocky nature of the islands. Generally spots are casually selected to plant in, without attention to the regularity which is observed in more favoured soils.

This fishery, being carried on very near the land, is capable of very considerable extension, at small risk, by the employment of additional capital. The reefs that surround the islands abound in fish of great variety, and the inhabitants being in general exceedingly well supplied with it at all seasons, it constitutes a considerable portion of their food; there is not, however, any fish cured for exportation. |
| The only manufactures are arrow root, straw and palmetto platt, and hats, and other such articles made of straw, or the palmetto leaf. |                  |               |                     |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  |

COINS.

British Silver is now the principal silver circulating medium in Bermuda. The inconveniences experienced by the public during the last three or four years, arising from the unsettled relative value of the Spanish dollar, with reference as well to British silver as Spanish gold, added to the embarrassment caused by keeping up the now useless distinction of a colonial currency, while the Commissariat issues are confined to British silver, and in sterling money, have caused the public to unite, by general consent, in receiving British silver, at the rate of 4s. to the dollar, in place of 4s. 5½d., which is the nominal par of sterling for currency, or even 4s. 4d., which is its intrinsic value. The Spanish dollar has consequently disappeared from general circulation, except when required for payment of customs' duties, when it is received by the officers of that department at the rate of 4s. 4d. sterling per dollar. The doubloon and its fractional parts are almost the only Gold circulating medium in this colony; a doubloon, weighing 7 dwts. 8 grs. and upwards, passes for 16 dollars, or (according to the present current value of the Silver circulating medium) 64s. sterling. Other foreign Gold coins, of which there is but an inconsiderable quantity in circulation, pass at the rate of 3d. currency, or 2d. sterling, per grain.

AMOUNT of COIN in CIRCULATION.

There not being any Customs' regulation whereby the import or export of Coin can be ascertained, and as remittances are frequently made by private individuals in specie, over which there does not exist any check or control, it is impossible to afford a satisfactory answer under this head.

AMOUNT of PAPER CURRENCY in CIRCULATION.

Nil.

COURSE of EXCHANGE.

On bills drawn by the Commissary upon the Lords Commissioners of his Majesty's Treasury, a premium of 1½ per cent.; thus a bill upon their Lordships for £100 sterling is purchased for £101 10s. in British Silver.

In consequence of the recent arrangement referred to in the subsequent column, the dollar, or one-third of the pound currency, is made equivalent to four British shillings in place of 4s. 5½d., which was the old par of exchange; private bills pass at par on the new rate; that is, a bill on London, at thirty days' sight, for £100 sterling, is purchased with 2,000 British shillings, or with doubloons, full weight, at the rate of £3 4s. sterling per doubloon.

All colonial accounts are kept in currency, the par of which is an advance of 50 per cent. upon sterling; thus £100 sterling is equal to £150 currency. All private money transactions in the colony are kept in currency. The duties of Customs under the British Acts are kept in sterling, and are paid by the public in dollars at the rate of 4s. 4d. sterling, or in doubloons at 15½ dollars each. All colonial accounts of receipt and expenditure are kept in currency, payments made by the public being in dollars at the rate of 6s. 8d. currency, or 4s. 5½d. sterling, or in doubloons, at the rate of 16 dollars each, if of 17 dwts. 8 grs. weight; otherwise at the rate of 3d. currency; or 2d. sterling, per grain, and re-issued by the Treasurer at the same rate.

The Agricultural Produce of this settlement consists of small quantities of India corn, rice, yams, and plantains, raised merely for the consumption of the settlement. A few horses are used for the saddle, and many horned cattle are bred within the territory of the British as well as imported from the adjacent provinces; these are used in the mahogany works, for the purpose of drawing out the wood.

* As returned at the biennial census, May, 1832. The confused and disordered state of the original returns, and original books, of this department, have prevented the present acting registrar from completing the examination of the returns for the country districts, as called for by the Orders of his Majesty in Council; and he considers it his duty to observe, that the present return cannot be considered as a correct one.

† From 1st January to 31st December, 1832.

‡ The conflicting state of the biennial returns, 1830, for the islands of Seychelles, as compared with the original books and returns, 1826, have rendered it quite impossible to register the returns furnished in 1830, as duly reported to Government. The returns for 1832 have, therefore, not been received pending the decision of the Government in the matter.

§ From 1st January to 30th June, 1832.

COINS.

On the 25th November, 1825, his Excellency the Governor in Council promulgated his Majesty's Order in Council, establishing an uniformity of currency in all his Majesty's colonial possessions, similar to that of the United Kingdom; as also a letter from the Lords Commissioners of his Majesty's Treasury in furtherance of that object, and directing, in pursuance of the said Order in Council—"That from the 1st January, 1826, all the public accounts to be kept in sterling money;" declaring also "four shillings" British silver and copper to be the legal payment of one current dollar of the colonial money of the accounts of Mauritius, and further establishing the rate in British money at which the coins current in Mauritius are to circulate in the public offices of Government.

Table, attached to the Treasury Circular of the 12th February, 1825, of the gross weight of the contents in pure silver, and of the value, computed at the rate of 5s. 2d. per oz. Troy, British standard fineness, of the under-mentioned silver coins, taken from assays made at the mints of Paris and London, together with the rate at which those coins are to be issued.

The value of the token was not altered by the Ordinance of Council of the 25th November, 1825; but by an Order of his Excellency the Governor, No. 74, dated 4th August, 1831, it was reduced to 8s. sterling; that of the marquee was augmented  $\frac{1}{16}$  of a centime of the current dollar of 4s. sterling by it; and that of the copper piece  $\frac{1}{8}$  of a centime of the same dollar.

Until the publication of the Ordinance of the 25th November, 1825, two sicca rupees formed the current dollar of the colony, and from the date of the Government Order of the 10th December, 1824, this current dollar was considered of the value of 4s. sterling.

AMOUNT OF PAPER CURRENCY IN CIRCULATION.

It was found that the paper, of the issue of 1825, was very much torn and worn out, and it was deemed advisable that a new issue should take place, and that the old one should be called in. The new issue is composed as follows:—

|                                   |                  |
|-----------------------------------|------------------|

|                                   | £40,000 sterling |
| Being equal to . . . . .          | 200,000 dollars. |

The Treasury notes thus issued are of the following tenour:—

The Governor of Mauritius and Dependencies promises to pay to the Bearer, on demand, the sum of — Pounds, sterling, in Specie, at the rates established by Law.

The paper currency during the year 1832 was at par with specie, for which it was exchanged on demand. Of the amount prepared as above stated, £105 was in the Treasury, and the remaining £39,895 in the hands of the public on 31st December, 1832.

In the month of January there was established a banking company, by charter, comprising 1,000 shares of £100 per share. Their issues amounted, on the 31st December, 1832, to £99,588 sterling, in notes of £2, £3, £4, and £20 sterling.—Their transactions were generally in discounting mercantile bills at £9 per cent.

ACCOUNTS.

The Government accounts since January, 1826, are kept in sterling money. Merchants and shopkeepers keep their accounts in dollars and centimes.—Note:—

- 2 sous make one centime.
- 20 ditto, or 10 centimes, one livre or franc colonial.
- 200 ditto, or 100 centimes, ten livres or one dollar.

The sous, centimes, livres, and francs are moneys of account.

COURSE OF EXCHANGE.

During the year 1832 paper and specie were at par, but British money bore a premium of 3 to 4 per cent. above the other coins, in consequence of the demand for bills on England. No bills drawn on England during the year 1832 by the Civil Government. Bills drawn on the Madras Government to the amount of M. R. 6,782 at par. The Commissariat drew bills for British sterling money at the rate of £101 10s. for every £100 bill.

The following Statement of the course of exchange, during the year 1832, was made up from the sales of bills on the best mercantile information:—

The difference between the quantity of black oil in this return, compared with that in the list of imports, is accounted for by importations of that article from Van Diemen's Land. The same remark applies equally to the variation in the number of seal skins.

COINS.

The Coins in circulation are the coins of Great Britain, which are current at their sterling value, and Spanish dollars, which are current at 4s., half dollars at 2s., and quarter dollars at 1s. sterling.

AMOUNT OF COIN in CIRCULATION.

The whole amount of British Coin in circulation in the colony is estimated at about £130,000; and of this sum there was on the 31st December, 1832:

|                                |   |   |   |          |
|--------------------------------|---|---|---|----------|

| In the Military Chest          | . | . | . | 33,050   |
| In the Bank of New South Wales | . | . | . | 20,000   |
| In the Bank of Australia       | . | . | . | 25,000   |
| Total                          | . | . | . | £114,275 |

AMOUNT OF PAPER CURRENCY in CIRCULATION.

The Paper Currency in circulation consists of notes of the banks of New South Wales, and of Australia and the Waterloo Company.

The average amount in the year 1832 may be estimated as follows:

|                         |   |   |   |         |
|-------------------------|---|---|---|---------|
| Bank of New South Wales | . | . | . | £15,000 |
| Bank of Australia       | . | . | . | 25,000  |
| Waterloo Company        | . | . | . | 3,000   |
| Total                   | . | . | . | £43,000 |

The two first of these establishments are joint stock companies, the shares in which are transferable; the last is a trading firm of individual merchants.

The notes are all of sterling denomination, and are convertible into British money on demand.

The great portion of the circulation in this colony is carried on by drafts or cheques on one of the two banks, the mass of pecuniary transactions centreing in Sydney, and almost every individual of property having an account with one or other of the banks, in which, for security, a large proportion of their cash is lodged.

COURSE OF EXCHANGE.

By a notice issued by the Deputy Commissary General, dated 8th May, 1828, it was regulated, in pursuance of instruction from the Lords Commissioners of his Majesty's Treasury, that from the 24th of the same month, bills on that Board would be granted by the Deputy Commissary General, at the rate of £100 for every £101 10s. paid into the military chest.

The exchange of bills on his Majesty's Treasury continues to be regulated by this notice.

Bills of private individuals, of undoubted credit, are generally negociated at par; if otherwise, at a discount varying from one to five per cent.

Few, if any, bills of exchange are negociated on foreign countries; and no rate of exchange on such bills can, therefore, be quoted.

The rate of interest allowed by the courts of law is eight per cent. The banks, in discounting bills, charge discount at the rate of ten per cent. Private individuals lending money exact interest at the rate of eight, ten, fifteen, twenty, and thirty per cent.

NOTE.—By an Act of the Governor and Council, passed 9th March, 1832, No. 13; (2 Will. IV.) a savings' bank is established, which is allowed by the said law to give interest for moneys deposited therein, at the rate of five per cent. per annum; and to exact, for moneys borrowed from the same, interest at rate not less than eight per cent. per annum. Ten per cent. per annum is usually obtained.

ACCOUNTS kept in £. s. d., being the same denomination as in Great Britain.

WEIGHTS.

The Weights in use are the old standard weights of Great Britain.

MEASURES.

The Measures in use are the old standard measures of Great Britain, the law establishing the new imperial weights and measures not coming into operation until the 1st of March, 1833.

MEMORANDUM.

The foregoing is the amount of population, as it appeared by the census of 1831, the last taken; but by a statement transmitted in March, 1832, after a revision of the permits, the total number, after deducting certain aliens, then warned to leave the garrison, is estimated at . . . . . 15,709

To this, however, may be added,

1st. The excess of the births in the year, as compared with the deaths . . . . . 89

2d. Excess of British subjects entered the garrison, as compared with those who have left it . . . . . 30

3d. Excess of aliens entered or remained, as compared with those who have gone; which excess is altogether caused by families who were, on the revision of permits, warned to leave the garrison, if means of transport could be provided, but for want of which still remain . . . . . 69

Total . . . . . 15,897

COURSE OF EXCHANGE.

The Committee of Merchants declare a rate of exchange with England twice a week, founded on the actual transactions during the intervening days.

The Commissary, in pursuance of his instructions from the Lords Commissioners of his Majesty's Treasury, grants bills on their Lordships at the rate of £100 in exchange for every £101 10s. tendered to him in British silver money. He has not for some time advertised for any supplies in other than British specie; should he have occasion so to do, he must come in competition with the merchants.

The average rate of the commercial exchange during the last year has been 50*d.* per dollar at exchange of 4*s.* 2*d.*

The following are the average rates of exchange with the principal ports of the Mediterranean.

AMOUNT OF COIN IN CIRCULATION.

The amount of silver and copper in circulation may be estimated at about £150,000 sterling.

AMOUNT OF PAPER CURRENCY IN CIRCULATION.

The only paper currency in circulation consists of the notes of two separate banks (established en Comandite), not amounting to £20,000 sterling. They are not received by the Government departments, and are issued more for the convenience of the commercial body than with a view of profit.

These banks are considered very solid, and are conducted in a safe and regular manner.

The introduction of British money into these possessions has not hitherto produced among the commercial body of inhabitants generally any alteration of the mode of keeping their accounts, and of making sales, contracts, &c., which are continued as formerly in Maltese currency, namely, scudi, tari, and grains.

At Corfu there is a public university, also an ecclesiastical seminary, for the education of young men intended for the priesthood of the Greek orthodox dominant church, and in each of the islands of the States is a school, entitled "secondary," maintained at the public expense, in which secondary schools the scholars are instructed in the Greek and Latin classics, in the modern Greek, English and Italian languages, in arithmetic, and the elementary mathematics. In the chief town of each island is a central school, likewise at the Government expense, on the mutual instruction plan, for teaching reading, writing, and arithmetic; and in these schools the village schoolmasters are trained in the method of mutual instruction.

Besides these schools entirely at the public expense there are in each island district schools on the same plan as the central schools, where similar instruction is given, the expense being defrayed by the parents of the children. The terms per scholar vary greatly, according to the particular agreements stipulated between the masters and parents, and are frequently paid in kind. Government also contributes to the establishment of these schools by furnishing books, slates, benches, &c., and where no suitable church exists, by providing a school house. The district and village schools are under the immediate superintendence of the head master of the central school in each island, and there is an inspector-general of all these schools. The whole of the establishment for education is under the general direction of the commission for public instruction.

Government also contributes to the establishment of these schools by furnishing books, slates, benches, &c., and where no suitable church exists, by providing a school house.

The only coinage of the States is a copper currency to the amount of £10,000 sterling, in farthings.

The general circulating medium is Spanish dollars, in which description of coin, mostly, the States receive for staple produce exported to the amount of about £275,000 sterling annually, exclusive of returns from a considerable capital employed by shipowners in the Levant trade, remittances received for subsistence of the troops, &c. ; and in the same specie (Spanish dollars) pay for the article of bread corn alone, imported into the States from the Black Sea and Italy, to the amount of about £170,000 sterling per annum; the quantity of bread corn grown in the island being equal only to one-fourth of the consumption.

Since June, 1825, British silver currency to the amount of £70,000 sterling has been received from England and thrown into circulation ; but, judging from the receipts for public duties and rents, and recent state of balances in the respective Treasuries, including the Military Chest, it would appear that the total amount of British silver now remaining in the States does not exceed £25,000 sterling, and that there has been withdrawn from circulation of this description of money £45,000 for remittances to Malta, &c., by regiments returning to England, and for payment of articles imported by British trading vessels.
